

Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enríquez was recognized for the seventh time by the Financial Times as one of the most innovative law firms in North America

After our Firm obtained in January 2020 the first authorization granted in Mexico for the establishment and operation of a financial technology institution (FTI), we are currently advising several financial technology applications, as well as several acquisitions and investments in banks, popular financial societies and financial technology institutions.

This is the seventh time the Financial Times recognizes our Firm's innovation in its FT Innovative Lawyers North America report since 2014, once again making Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enríquez the only Mexican firm included in this prestigious list.
