

Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enríquez appoints Sara Gutiérrez Ruiz de Chavez and Esteban Valadez Jiménez as partners of the Firm effective 2023

Sara Gutiérrez Ruiz de Chávez specializes in administrative litigation, regulatory investigations and compliance. She holds a law degree from Universidad Anáhuac and a master's degree in Economics of Competition Law from King's College in London. Sara focuses in administrative proceedings of all kinds, including anti-competitive practices and other violations of the Federal Antitrust Law, and has participated in high-impact cases that have defined the interpretation and application of legislation in various areas in Mexico. She also currently serves as a non-governmental advisor to the Mexican Antitrust Commission before the International Competition Network (ICN).

Esteban Valadez Jiménez specializes in mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, private equity and real estate acquisitions and divestitures, advising sellers, buyers and strategic financial investors, both domestic and foreign. He holds a law degree from Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey (2008) and a master's degree in Corporate Law from New York University School of Law (2014).

These organic appointments will continue to strengthen our multidisciplinary model, and reaffirm our commitment to provide the most specialized legal advice with the highest standards of excellence, just as we have done during our more than 85 years of history.

This article or news brief does not constitute legal advice and is protected by copyright.*

Throughout this website "Creel" and the "Firm" refer to Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enriquez, S.C. Creel is a law firm founded in 1936 and domiciled in Mexico. Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enriquez, S.C.

Copyright
Privacy Notice
Disclaimer