

Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enríquez welcomes Eduardo Sotelo as Partner of the Firm

Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enríquez is proud to announce the appointment of Eduardo Sotelo Cauduro as Partner of the Firm, effective July 1, 2026. Eduardo joins together with his team, comprised of associates María Luisa Mendoza, Mariana Alcántara, and Laura Elisa Sánchez.

With over 20 years of experience, Eduardo is a leading authority in advising companies across a wide range of industries on international trade and customs matters. His practice encompasses regulatory compliance, IMMEX and PROSEC programs, IVA and IEPS Certification, origin verification proceedings under Free Trade Agreements, customs valuation, non-tariff regulations and restrictions, customs audits and litigation, as well as the structuring of international trade aspects in corporate transactions.

His arrival marks the launch of our International Trade and Customs practice, a strategic step through which we strengthen our comprehensive service offering and reaffirm our commitment to supporting our clients on every front of their operations.
