

Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enríquez Nominated For Mexico Law Firm Of The Year by Chambers and Partners

The renowned London-based publisher Chambers and Partners shortlisted Creel to receive the Mexico Law Firm of the Year Award as part of the Chambers Latin America Awards Gala to be held on September 16th in Miami, Florida.

According to Chambers “The awards are based on our research for the 2017 edition of Chambers Latin America: Latin America’s Leading Lawyers for Business. Awards will be given to local firms in each country and to the leading international players across the region. These awards reflect a law firm’s pre-eminence in key practice areas. They also reflect notable achievements over the past 12 months including outstanding work, impressive strategic growth and excellence in client service.”

We are pleased to announce that Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enriquez has been shortlisted for Mexico Law Firm of the Year award.
