

Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enríquez is recognized by Chambers and Partners as Mexico Law Firm of the Year

We are very pleased to share with our clients and friends that our Firm has been once again recognized by Chambers and Partners as "Mexico Law Firm of the Year", as part of its Chambers Latin America Awards 2016. The ceremony took place in Miami, Florida on September 16, 2016. This is the fourth time our firm has received this prestigious award in the past decade.

Chambers refers to us as "This domestic giant is widely lauded as a powerhouse of the transactional world, with market-leading expertise spanning the corporate, banking and finance, capital markets, and real estate fields. The firm is regularly sought after by major multinational names for complex and high-value transactions, with its handling of significant M&A deals bolstered by its top-tier antitrust practice. The team remains at the cutting edge of innovative financial instruments in the capital markets space, and continues to provide capabilities in insurance, environmental, and tax matters".
