Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enríquez is again named Mexico Law Firm of the Year

We are delighted to announce that Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enriquez has been once again recognized by Chambers and Partners as "Mexico Law Firm of the Year" during the Chambers Latin America Awards 2017 held in Miami, Florida on November 17, 2017.

According to Chambers and Partners, this award is given to one national firm in each country based on their research for the 2018 edition of Chambers Latin America, and reflects a law firm's pre-eminence in key practice areas and notable achievements over the past 12 months, including outstanding work, impressive strategic growth, and excellence in client service.

We are honored to be the only Mexican firm to have received this prestigious award two years in succession, and five times since it was first launched in 2005.

Our gratitude and deepest appreciation goes out to all of our clients and other friends who continue to entrust our firm with their most demanding and sophisticated endeavors. We feel truly privileged, and now more than ever reafirm our unwavering commitment to excellence.
