

Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enríquez was once again recognized by the Financial Times as one of the most innovative law firms in North America

Creel was recognized as the second most innovative in the category of Accessing New Markets and Capital , and the fourth most innovative in New Products and Services.

In addition, our Senior Partner Jean Michel Enriquez was recognized by the Financial Times as one of the Top 10 Legal Innovators for North America 2019 for his ongoing leadership and innovation in the legal sector.

This is the sixth time the Financial Times has recognized Creel's innovation in its FT Innovative Lawyers North America report since 2014, and senior partners Carlos Aiza and Jean Michel Enriquez are the only Mexican lawyers listed in the FT Top 10 Legal Innovators for North America to date.

We wish to once again express our most sincere gratitude to all our clients, colleagues and other friends for their trust in our abilities to execute on their most challenging projects, and do what has never been done before.
