

Luis Salinas joins Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enríquez as Counsel in its tax practice

Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enríquez, S.C., is pleased to announce that Luis Salinas has joined the Firm as counsel focusing on tax controversy and litigation, further strengthening the capabilities of its leading tax practice.

Luis acted as head of the Taxpayers' Advocate Office (PRODECON), where he also held the positions of Deputy Chief of Systemic Tax Analysis and Director General of International Affairs. He was involved in the work of the Subcommittee on Dispute Avoidance and Resolution of the United Nations, and was an associate in the Mexico City, Washington DC and New York City offices of an international law firm for 7 years.

Luis obtained his Law degree from Universidad Iberoamericana in Mexico City in 2008 and a Master of Laws in International Taxation (LL.M.) from New York University in 2014.

With over 80 years of history, Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enríquez is a leading, award-winning fullservice corporate law firm with an unwavering commitment to excellence, and an established reputation for delivering creative, specialized and responsive legal advice on the most complex and innovative matters for the most sophisticated and demanding clients.

This article or news brief does not constitute legal advice and is protected by copyright.*

Throughout this website "Creel" and the "Firm" refer to Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enriquez, S.C. Creel is a law firm founded in 1936 and domiciled in Mexico. Creel, García-Cuéllar, Aiza y Enriquez, S.C.

Copyright
Privacy Notice
Disclaimer